NSS ACTIVITY REPORT

Swami Samartha Prakat Din and "Fight the Summer Heat Campaign"

NSS volunteers celebrated Swami Samartha Prakat Din on 23^d March 2023 and following Swami's philosophy of "Humanity" NSS volunteers distributed fruit juice to all the Guards working in the BKL Walawalkar Rural Medical College.

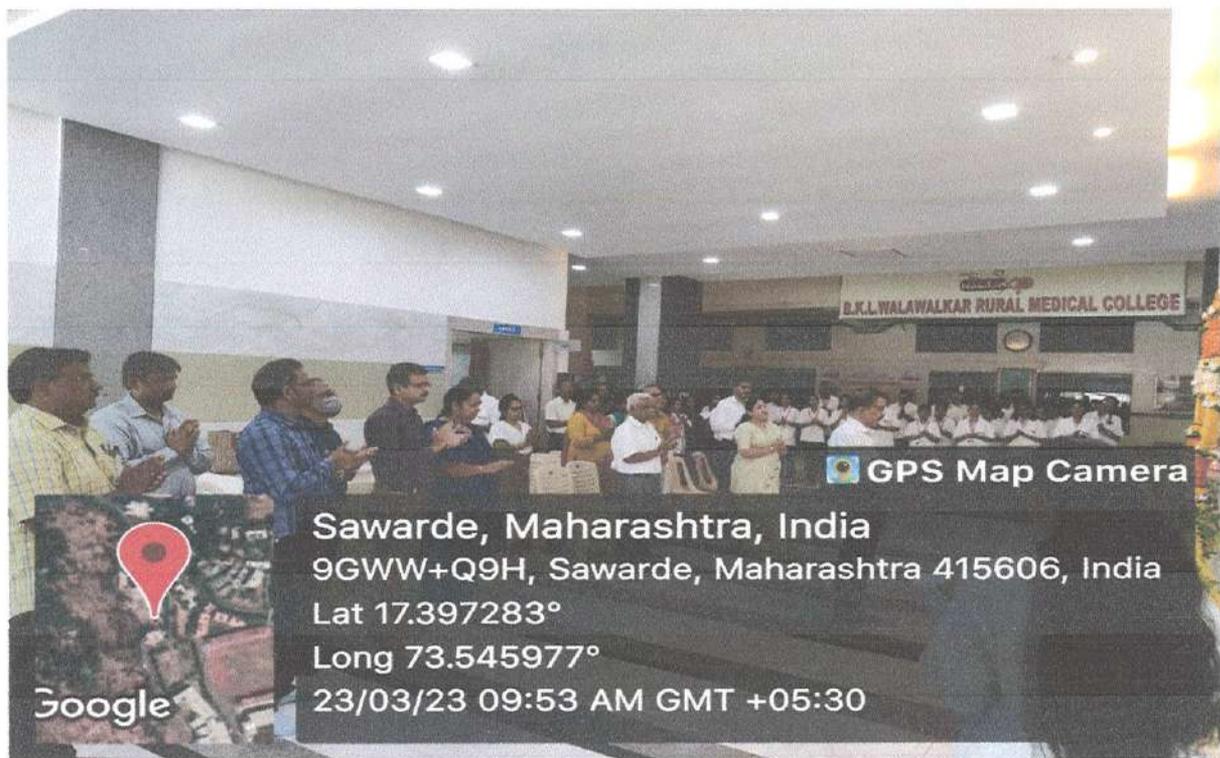

Swami Samartha Prakat Din

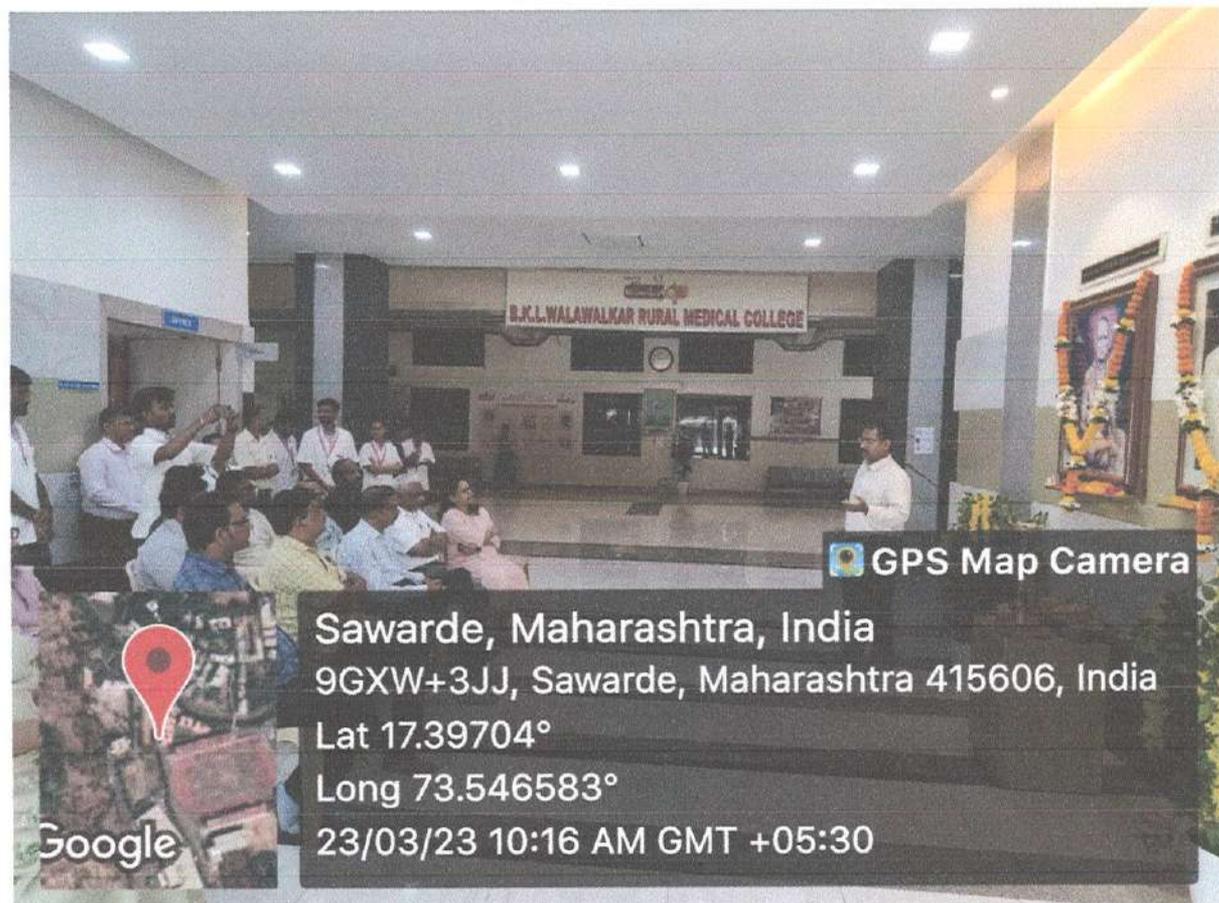

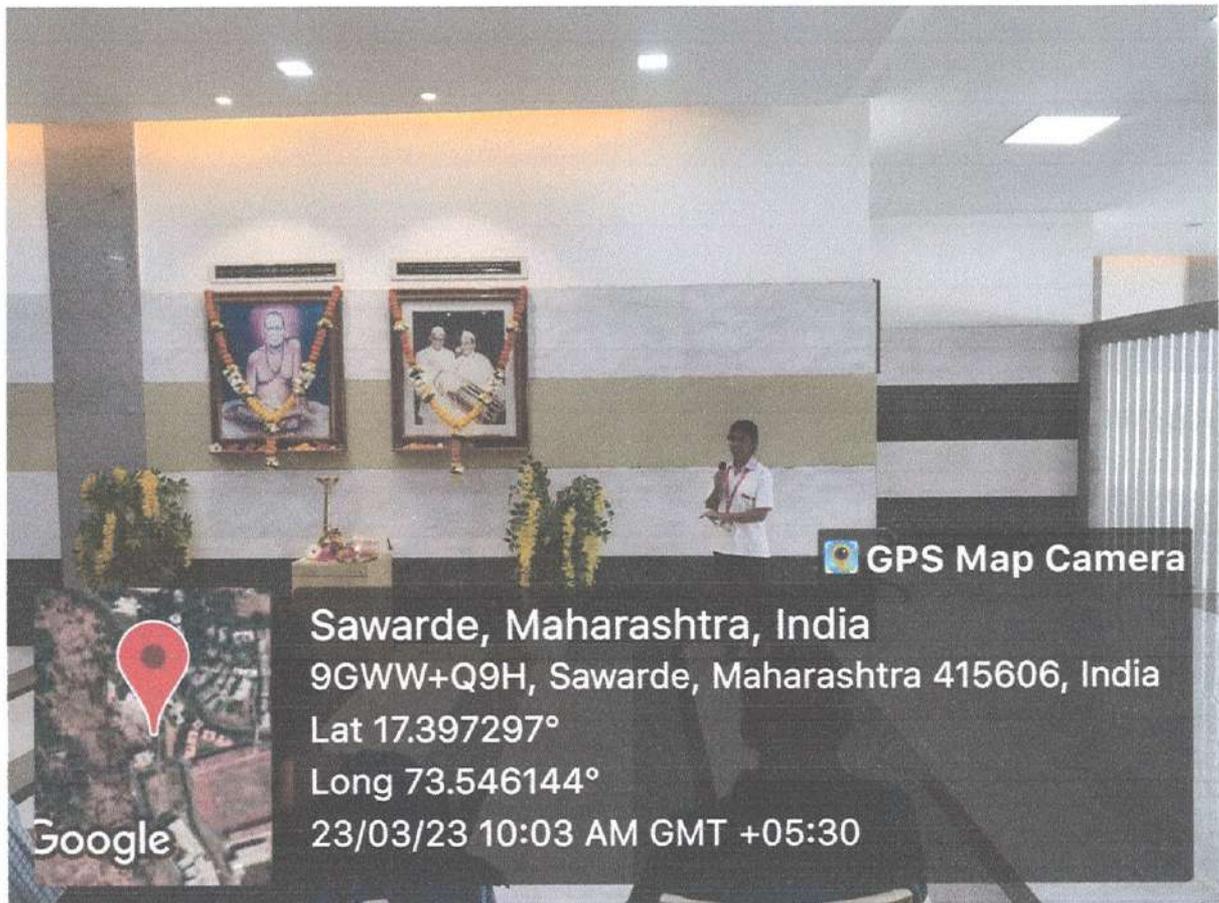

Venue: Dean's Office, BKL Walawalkar Rural Medical College.

Time: 10:00 am

All the Head of the departments, faculties, non-teaching staff and MBBS IInd phase students gathered in front of Dean's Office and performed Aarati of Swami Samartha on the occasion of Prakat Din. It was a spiritual retreat where Mr. Swapnil Kshirsagar explained the foundation philosophies of the Institute and the spiritual support the Institution has always received from Swami Samartha and Digambardas Maharaj, Ms. Nikita Balasaheb Jadhav – IInd phase MBBS student shared her experience and miracle where she felt Swami's blessings brought her to this esteemed Institute and Dr. Namita Deshmukh, Associate Professor, Community Medicine and Program Officer, NSS, shared her understanding of the messages given by Swami Samartha and how one can fight with fears and challenges by having an unshakable faith on The Divine. The whole environment in the College felt so devotional and was filled with gratitude for being blessed by the Almighty, so much so, that no one felt like leaving the place and everyone remained seated in silence for some time even after the program was over. May be everyone was reflecting and counting their own blessings.

A beautiful Rangoli was put up by Ms. Nidhi Ajay Lokahnde Pahse II MBBS student depicting Swami Samartha.

“Fight the Summer Heat Campaign”

Following the teachings of Swami Samartha, on the auspicious Occasion, as a part of contribution to the society, NSS volunteers distributed fruit juice to 35 Guards and Watchmen in the campus and educated them about the importance of staying hydrated throughout the day, in order to fight the scorching summer heat.
